BORYAR, June 18, 1860. MESSES. CLARK, GREGORY & Co.:- I have been for several years sorely afflicted with frust bitten fee during the winter months, until I happily found a remedy in your valuable medicine, the Ambrostal Oil, since that time I have used it in Toothache, Khenmatism, Sore Throat, Cholic and Burns, and found a never failing remedy in the most severe cases. I therefore take great pleasure in recommending the Ambresial Oil to a world of effection, feeling con fident it possesses the requisite qualities to cure the most severe cases for which you recommend it. hand." The "friends of Mr. BELL" are not given to interrupting' anybody's meeting. One of he speakers the other night asked his hearers if they would not vote for BRECKINEIDGE and help to defeat Mr. BELL, whom he called "Old Dad." An Irishman in the crowd answered, Niver! Niver! That, we suppose, was "the old Teaven (?) of Know-Nothingism." The same speaker asked the Union men present, Where is your strength?" and somebody in the crowd answered, "In Kentucky." That, we presume, was "the rowdy element of the
